

JANUARY NEWSLETTER

Happy New Year

I hope your Christmas Holiday was filled with joy and warmth.

The farm animals and I are eagerly awaiting the return of all those smiling faces on the 8th for what promises to be a year full of learning and fun.

BILLING

Just a reminder, you won't have to worry about overbilling as payments will automatically stop after 27 classes.

JUNIOR NAVIGATORS CLASS UPDATE:

For those of you enrolling your children in the Junior Navigators Class led by Zachary, I want to remind you that this is an indoor-outdoor class that spans the entire farm. Please ensure your children are dressed in warm clothes and suitable farm shoes for this adventurous learning experience.

They'll have the fun of using their own take-home compass and map, making each session an exciting journey of discovery! More information here Junior Navigator

UPCOMING

Extra Thursday Class by Popular Demand: In response to your feedback, we're adding an additional class on Thursdays. If you're interested, please let me know promptly so I can secure a spot for your child. Each class is designed to offer a new adventure, ensuring a fresh experience for students in multiple sessions.

SUMMER CAMP

Exciting Summer Camp News: Yes, we're gearing up for summer camp! Registration opens at the end of March, and Rachelle is creating some fantastic camp and farm shirts for the kids to enjoy.

UPCOMING

Keep an eye on our website for the latest updates on specialty classes. We're dedicated to bringing a variety of engaging and educational experiences to our curriculum in 2024.

REMINDER

With the chilly weather upon us, it's important to dress your children in warm coats, hats, gloves, and sturdy shoes for our outdoor activities.
